

NON-IMMIGRANT "M" VISA (MEDIA VISA)

Effective from 1 November 2022, 09:00 hrs. (UTC+7), a foreign national with a residence in the Czech Republic, who wishes to apply for a Thai visa must apply and submit his/her application through the new online e-Visa platform at website <https://www.thaievisa.go.th>. Please note that the applicant must be present in the Czech Republic during the whole process of visa application. Please note that it is no longer required for the applicant to submit his/her passport and original supporting documents in person at the Royal Thai Embassy, Prague.

After the e-Visa application has been approved, a confirmed e-mail will be sent to applicants. It is kindly requested to print a copy of the confirmation e-mail to present to airline and Thai immigration officials to carry out checks when travelling to Thailand.

- Please apply for an e-Visa online, through the new e-Visa system (<https://thaievisa.go.th/>).
- In-person visa application is no longer possible.
- The Embassy does not accept visa application by post.
- For more information on e-Visa please visit "HOW TO APPLY FOR E-VISA".

This type of visa is issued to applicants who are currently residing in the Czech Republic and wishing to enter Thailand for the following purposes:

1. Media / Press based in Thailand
2. Film crew (having purpose of producing a film, motion picture or advertisement)

All applications are subject to approval. The Royal Thai Embassy or Consulate-General reserves the right to request for an interview or additional documents. Submission of a visa application does not necessarily mean that a visa will be granted. Please also note that the visa fees are non-refundable.

M VISA CONDITIONS

B Visa is valid for 90 days from the date of issuance. Travellers must enter Thailand within the said 90-day period. They will be allowed to stay in Thailand for a period of up to 90 days, counting from the date of entry. During the 90-day period of stay, if they wish to leave and re-enter Thailand, they are required to apply for a re-entry permit (single or multiple) before departure. If they leave Thailand without a re-entry permit, the current stay permit shall be considered void. Extension of visa is possible. Those qualified may obtain an additional one-year stay permit, counting from the date of entry to Thailand. Extension of stay is at the discretion of the immigration officer. Extension application can be made at the Office of Immigration Bureau. Please visit www.immigration.go.th for more information.

If the B Visa holder breaches the entry conditions, the stay permit will be revoked and he/she will be prohibited from entering Thailand in the future.
